

Conservancy District Vote - - May 23

Polls will be open from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. this Saturday, May 23, for voting on the referendum seeking to establish a River Conservancy District in the area taking in portions of Lake County, and all of McHenry County.

It is not necessary to be a registered voter to cast a ballot in Saturday's referendum. All qualified electors may vote. Requirements for voting are that the voter must have lived one year in the State of Illinois, 90 days in the county in which he is voting and 30 days in the district in which he is voting. Polling places in this area include Precinct 1, at the Channel Lake School. Residents of the regular voting precincts 1, 5 and 6 of Antioch Township within the boundaries of the proposed District will vote at Channel Lake School.

Precinct 2, voting at the Grass Lake School—residents of regular voting precincts 3 and 4 of Antioch Township within the boundaries of the proposed District vote at Grass Lake School.

Polling place for precinct

No. 3 of Richmond and Hebron Townships is Richmond Memorial Hall in Richmond. Residents of Richmond Township and Hebron Township within the boundaries of the district vote there.

Other polling places are Gavin School North, Grant Township Hall in Ingleside, Fox Lake Fire station, Round Lake Heights Village Hall, Volo Public School, Wonder Lake Fire House, McHenry City Hall and Spring Grove Fire House. Residents of Burton Township vote at the Spring Grove Fire House.

In the Antioch area, the proposed District takes in all residents north to the Wisconsin State Line, in an area bounded on the east by Tiffany Road. At Beach Grove Road, the district takes a slight jog to the east, then extends south. If you are uncertain as to whether or not you are within the proposed District, you can find out by calling your precinct committeeman.

Saturday's referendum will ask voters to approve a tax levy of .003 per $100 of assessed valuation to support the conservancy District. Purpose of the District, according to its supporters, is to eliminate pollution of the Fox River.

If the referendum is approved, the affairs of the District would be conducted by trustees appointed by the county judges of the counties included.

Powers of the trustees of the District would be broad, among other things, the building of sewers, roads, various other installations where the trustees deemed they were necessary.

The laws covering the establishment of a River Conservancy District, and outlining its regulations, are contained in the River Conservancy Act approved by the General Assembly in 1925.

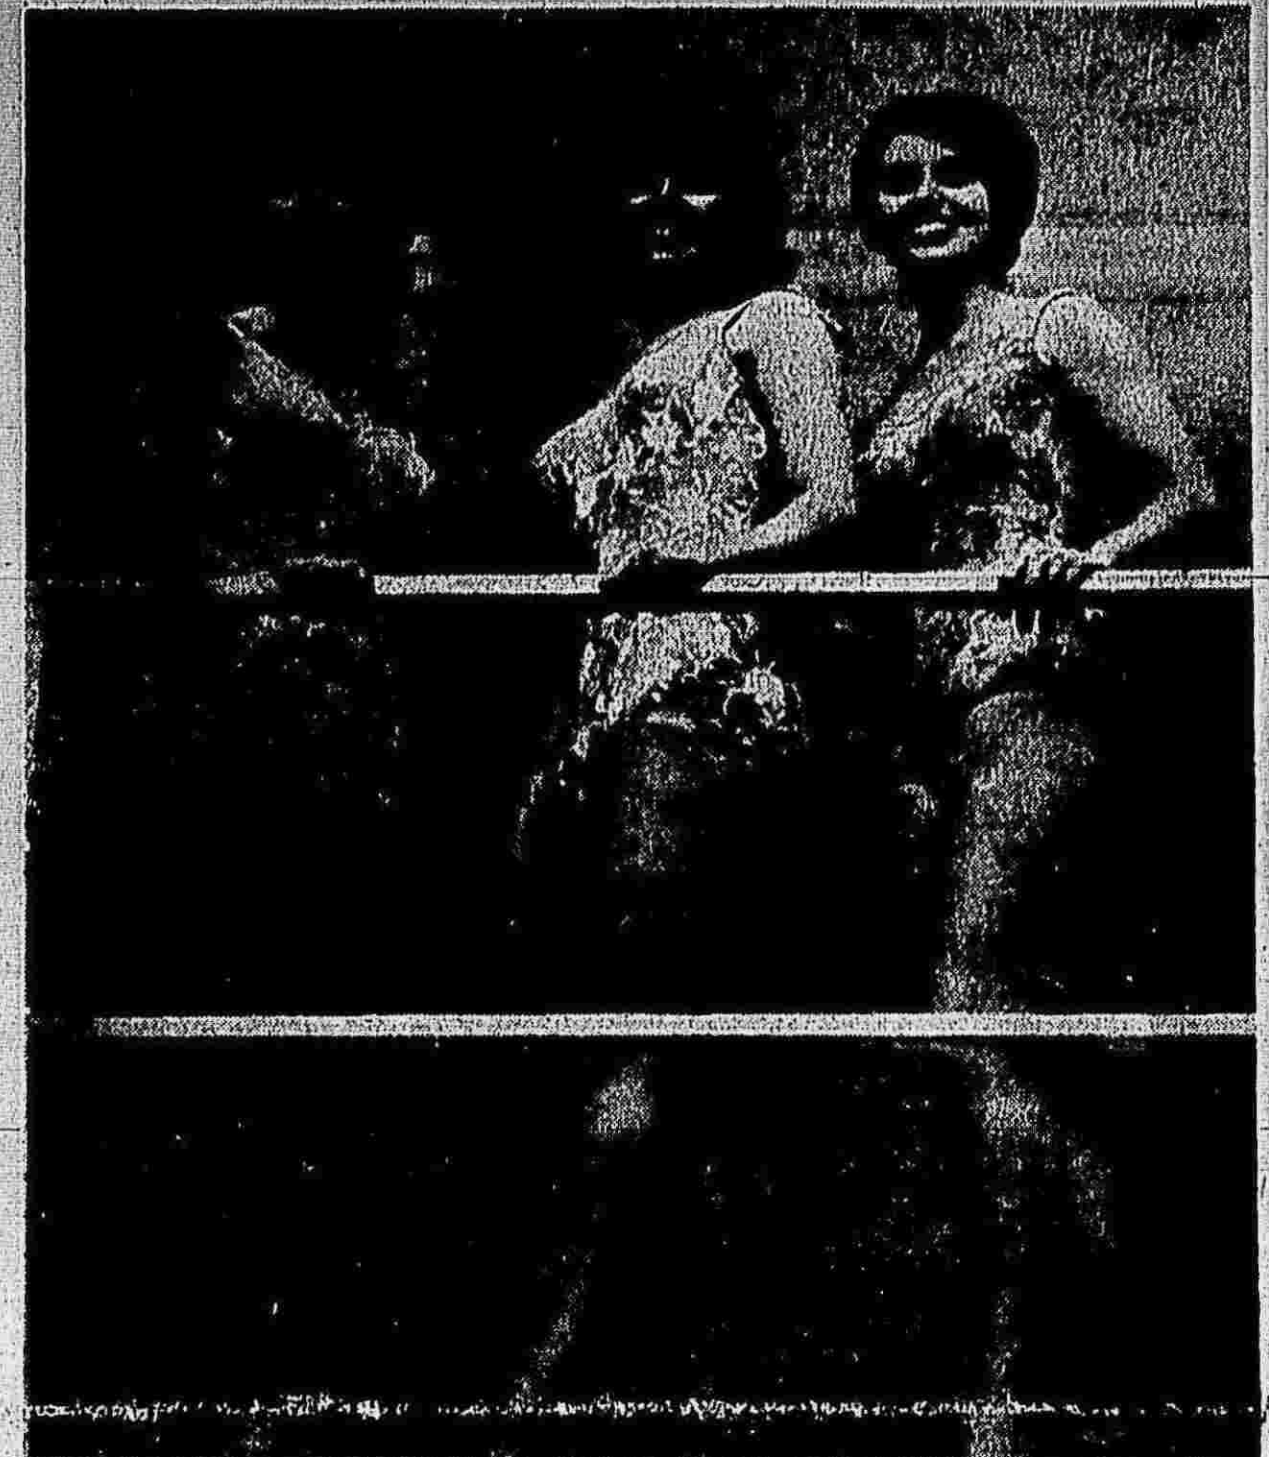

Most active opponents of the Conservancy District has been the "No-Con District Council," made up of several civic organizations already working on pollution problems. Most township supervisors, including Lloyd "Red" Murrie of Antioch Township, have expressed their opposition to the District.

Opponents claim that the work of the District would duplicate that of the Lake County Health Dept. and the Lake County Public Works Dept. These agencies, they say, have a head-start on the proposed District in accumulating data on the subject and getting plans under way to combat pollution. The introduction of a third agency would block progress, cause confusion, and waste taxpayers' money.

John Morris, working with both the Health Dept. and the Public Works Dept., said in an interview recently that these departments have already laid out a master plan for a sewer system covering the County. Realization of the system lies mainly with the many communities involved. The Public Works Dept. is already working with the Fox Lake Hills Drainage District, the Ingleside-Lake, and the Grayslake-Gages Lake area in establishing and improving sewerage disposal.

Actually the three finalists in the campus' annual Miss Northern contest are posed prettily on a campus balcony. They are, from the left, Diane Check, Grayslake sophomore; Elizabeth Whitney, Elmhurst freshman, and Dorothy Close, Antioch junior. They are among 10 campus beauties from whom Miss Northern will be chosen and crowned at a dance Saturday, May 23, in NIU's University Center ballroom. The contest is sponsored by Flunkies Independent Organization, a student men's group.

Shriners To March In Antioch

Shriners are planning a big parade in Antioch on Saturday, August 22.

The day's program is a tribute to the Potentate of Medinah Temple, Chicago, William Weisenborn, who has been a resident of Loon Lake for several years.

175 Entries In Benefit Horse Show

Entries in the first annual Countryside Hospital Benefit Horse Show to be held May 30 and 31 at the Lake County Fair Grounds now stand at 175.

Earl E. Bruss, professional horse show manager of Milwaukee who is running the event, reported that entries represent the outstanding horse flesh from four mid-western states.

Proceeds from the four performances will go to build Countryside Hospital. Matinee performances are slated for 2 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday, and evening shows will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The show is sanctioned by both the Northern Illinois Horse Show Association and the Wisconsin Horse Show Association.

Each of the four shows will be different, with horses competing in various classes and events.

Besides show competition, there will be an exhibition by the nationally known Victory Comptoner Corp. six-pony "fire engine" hitch of Barrington, Ill.

The Lake County Fairgrounds is at Routes 45 and 120, Grayslake. Tickets are on sale from members of the Hospital auxiliary or can be purchased at the gate.

In preparation for the event, a meeting of various village officials and representatives of civic organizations was held last night (Wednesday) in the Antioch Rescue Squad room.

The Shriners' parade will be over a mile long, consisting of band, drum and bugle corps, black horse troop, motorcycle patrol, marching units, clowns and other units. It is expected that more than 10,000 people will be in Antioch for the gala event.

John Brogan, 87 years old, one of Antioch's early residents, died at 3:40 a.m. Tuesday, May 19, at St. Theresa Hospital in Waukegan after a 10-day illness.

Mr. Brogan's home was at 1014 Spafford St. in Antioch. He was born March 23, 1877, at Bean Hill in Antioch Township, and lived in the Township all his life.

He married Nellie Smith on June 12, 1907, at St. Patrick's Church at Millcreek, near Wadsworth. He and his wife were one of the first members of St. Peter's Church in Antioch when it was founded, and still held membership in that church.

Mr. Brogan's parents, Hugh and Katherine Brogan, settled in the Antioch area about 1820.

Mr. Brogan had served as Justice of the Peace in Antioch Township for many years. He was a harness-maker, and had a harness shop in Antioch for many years, retiring in 1930.

He is survived by his wife, Nellie; one daughter, Mrs. James (Dorothy) Cook, of Portland, Oregon; three sons, John C. Brogan of Winnetka, Ill.; Robert A. Brogan, Arlington Heights, Ill.; and Roger L. Brogan, Waukegan; by one brother, Bill Brogan, Richmond, Ill.; seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Start of Construction By June 15 A Provision

The A & P Store has signed a lease with the builders of the proposed Shopping Plaza on Orchard St., in Antioch, it was announced at Tuesday night's meeting of the Village Board.

The lease hinges on several conditions, according to Attorney Edward Jacobs—the beginning of construction by June 15, the building of 25,000 square feet of other shops in the plaza, and black-topping of the rest of the village parking lot before the A&P Store's occupancy of the new building, among others.

The Plaza, construction of which was first announced late in 1962, would occupy the property adjacent to the village parking lot. It would occupy the property on Orchard street, running west of the parking lot to Hillside.

The A&P store will be constructed on the southeast corner of the property, facing north, immediately adjacent to the village parking lot. Other shops would extend along the south side of the property with perhaps an L-shaped extension extending along a portion of Orchard St. Most of the property adjoining Orchard St. would be used for parking space.

Plans of the construction include a 30 foot road running from Broadway to Hillside, and a 30 foot road along the east edge of the village parking lot to Orchard St.

"Beat The Champs" Helps Rescue Squad

Jack Sampayo, proprietor of the Antioch Bowl, announces that he has received a check for $114.72 from the Sun-Times Beat the Champs competition.

The bowling competition, in which league bowlers compete for score at their own alleys against a score bowled by a top bowler, is run for charity. The check received by Sampayo, to be given to a local charity of his choice will go to the Antioch Rescue Squad.

"This check represents money given by all the bowlers here who competed," Sampayo said. "I thought they would rather have it go to the Antioch Rescue Squad than anything else."

Mr. Tanner & Cast to Put On "Everybody Loves Opal"

With the selection of a suitable "Mr. Tanner" last Saturday the cast for "Everybody Loves Opal" is now complete. Mr. Tanner is the name of the cat who lives with Opal. The cast has been hard at work putting the final touches on the show, scheduled for Friday and Saturday. The cast includes Dee D'Isa, Joan Tanner, Bob Andersen, Alan Moorman, Stan Sutherland, and David Miller. It is being directed by Agnes Van Patten.

Miss Dee D'Isa playing the kind-hearted, generous Opal, will prove why "Everybody Loves Opal." Dee has appeared in numerous parts throughout the area. Theatre goers will remember Dee from Mr. L's Summer Tenthouse, and Kenosha Little Theatre. Besides many acting parts, recently, Dee has turned her talents to directing for Kenosha Little Theatre. Be sure to watch for her this summer in the production of "Guys and Dolls."

The part of the brainy professor with sinister goals is played by Bob Andersen. Bob also has a very long list of credits. He was active in theatre groups in California and more recently in Racine Community Theatre, Kenosha Little Theatre, Waukegan groups, and the Avon Players. P.M.L. fans will remember Bob as the Captain in the production of "Mister Roberts."

The Antioch Art Guild will again display their canvases in the theatre. You are promised a happy, light hearted evening with friendly home town charm.

The play, presented by the Palette, Masque & Lyre, is scheduled for Friday and Saturday at the Palette, Masque & Lyre Theatre, Main St., Antioch. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

NOTICE

The Antioch News office will be closed Friday, May 29, and Saturday, May 30, in observance of Memorial Day.

Silence Gives Consent In Saturday's Vote

Most Americans, despite an outward show of cynicism and an inclination to be lax in taking advantage of their right to vote, are firm believers in democracy and the will of the majority. They may gripe when the vote goes against their opinions or wishes, but they accept the decision.

All of us, though, hate to see an election decided in a "back-door manner"—a measure passed because few people know about it, or realize its importance. And that's what it appears may happen in the matter of the Conservancy District.

In the first place, probably few people realize that the referendum need not pass in Lake County to become a law of Lake County. The person who doesn't vote this Saturday (May 23) is voting for the law.

A majority "Yes" vote in the entire district will pass the law. Thus, the proposition might be voted down in Lake County, but a heavy "Yes" vote in McHenry County, if it outnumbers Lake County's "No" vote can force acceptance of the proposition on Lake Countians.

Reportedly, McHenry County residents are in favor of the Conservancy District. Understandably, their interest is in stopping pollution of the Fox River. They have little interest in Lake County's Chain of Lakes. Also understandably, more Lake Countians have a stake in problems of pollution of the Lakes; and less in the River-Lake Countians won't be very happy if they see their tax money being spent on projects to benefit McHenry County, and vice versa.

Everybody's against pollution of the waters, of course. Everyone would like to see sparkling clean waters, free of algae. The question is, "How to arrive at this happy state of affairs?"

Lake County is already supporting two county agencies who are working on the problem—The Lake County Health Dept. and the Dept. of Public Works. McHenry County has neither. We can see no reason to suppose that the Conservancy District can contribute anything to Lake County's efforts that can't be done better by the agencies we already have.

There are many worthwhile projects in the county crying for our tax dollars, and no one wants to pay additional tax money unless they're getting their full money's worth. This seems to be one more Bureau that we can do very well without.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

Time, they say, heals all wounds and maybe this is what Republican gubernatorial Nominee Charles Percy, Cook County Sheriff Ogilvie, and State Treasurer William Scott are counting on to heal the schism in Republican ranks.

Judging from the present tenor of remarks from Lake County voters, however, it will take more than the five months intervening between the legislative convention on June 1 and the November 10 general election for residents of this area to forget the efforts to "purge" State Rep. W. J. Murphy, of Antioch.

Percy, of course, expects the furor to die down, but he apparently is overlooking the probability that the Democrats will be doing their best to keep the executive branch brigandry fresh in the minds of the people.

By now the camera company executive has probably had a flood of letters and telegrams protesting the interference by Cook County leaders with the slating of legislative candidates by the legislative convention.

Percy is probably wishing that Ogilvie and Scott had let matters rest until he returned from his vacation instead of painting him into an uncomfortable corner.

And Percy is certainly in a corner because he stands a good chance of losing Lake County as well as support in the balliwick of other State Representatives slated for extermination.

On the other hand, if he tries to back off from the purge movement he will undergo extensive criticism because of his precarious perch on the limo Ogilvie and Scott have prepared for him.

It would seem that Ogilvie is in a much more comfortable position than Percy since he emerges as the No. 1 man in the party if Percy is knocked off by Kerner, which certainly seems probable at this time.

A revolt in Republican ranks in Lake County and other sections of the state, will, of course, affect the entire GOP state which makes the anguished silence of Elmer Hoffman, Elroy Sandquist, John Henry Altorfer, and John Kirby, Percy's running mates on the state ticket, somewhat surprising.

The selection of William Rentschler as chairman of the screening committee to select the replacements for the purged legislators is not calculated to make Percy many friends in Lake County and the presence of only one Lake County resident on the committee does not bode well for our chances of getting even two candidates much less four that had been prom-

Your Congressman Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClary

Members of Congress often voice the charge that waste in government spending is both excessive and inexcusable. The Office of the Comptroller General has given substance to this charge in its report to the Congress on expenditures for a proposed Naval Radio Research Station at Sugar Grove, West Virginia.

Affectionately dubbed the Big Dish, the Sugar Grove project was authorized by Congress in the spring of 1950 at an estimated cost of $20 million. The Department of the Navy felt that the station's complex radio telescope would fulfill certain urgent and "highly classified" military needs.

When a department of the Executive Branch of the government slaps the label "urgent" on one of its pet projects, this frequently means that there are going to be cries for more money and more delays. Operation Big Dish was no exception.

Working under the theory that the "urgency" of the matter required simultaneous design and construction, the Navy embarked upon an ill-advised program to build first, plan later. By the summer of 1960, calculations revealed that the estimated weight of the instrument would be far in excess of the designed capacity of the supporting structure already under construction. The Navy promptly dropped the architectural engineering firm hired for the project and found another.

More than four years passed after the Congressional appropriation of $20 million for this "urgent" project. Nothing had been accomplished.

The new firm developed a program calling for new research and new designs. The new program called for a new cost estimate. The new cost estimate (fiscal year 1962) called for $126.5 million. Later, the Navy's estimates reached $195.7 million. The report states that "other estimates . . . indicated total costs to be as much as $300 million. The Lake County Democratic Central Committee opens its political golf outing season at Vernon Hills Country Club on Wednesday, May 27. Tickets are now available from Democratic precinct committeemen or at Democratic headquarters.

The possibility of a Republican outing is up in the air at the present time because G.O.P. Central Committee Chairman Robert Milton may have trouble finding a four-some of golfers who are speaking to each other because of GOP party splits.

Courty Auditor John Darrow has prepared a handsome annual financial report on Lake County filled with facts and figures, which aren't necessarily always the same thing.

Darrow has expanded the annual report considerably since he took office and if you are a real figure filbert you can dig out a great deal of information about the revenue and expenditures of the many county offices. Copies are available at the courthouse.

A group of waltzers, obviously Old Guard Republicans who were attending the recent Republican Federation dinner at the Waukegan Inn, were jolted out of step when Jeri Cox and her trio planted their tongues in cheek and swirled into a snappy rendition of the Missouri Waltz, long-identified with you know whom.

SPEAKING TO YOU

By John Burland
Director of Social Studies,
Rockford East High School

A few days ago the U. S. News and World Report published a selection of letters written by an air force captain in South Viet Nam. The young man received his commission by way of College ROTC and had been in the war for six months before he was shot down.

The letters reveal a frustrated young man in a strange land, fighting a strange kind of war, and perhaps a little unhappy about being torn away from his wife and family. As was to be expected, he had a lot of gripes to work off, and he poured out his anger and frustration in these letters to his wife. It is just possible that he would not have given his approval to the publication of the letters.

Be that as it may, the letters reveal a bitterness toward the armed forces and the administration that borders on the savage. The following are examples of his feelings:

"The main problem is personnel—no good officers and NCO's over here that really know their business."

"All you read in the newspapers is the poor leadership of the Vietnamese, but we are just as bad. Everyone over here seems to be unqualified for his job."

"I don't know what the U. S. is going to do, but whatever it is, I'm sure it's wrong. We fight and we die but nobody cares. They've lied to my country about us."

"McNamara was here, spent his usual line and has gone back home to run the war with his screwed up bunch of people. We hope and pray that somehow this man does something right pretty soon."

There is much more but this sets the general tone: the armed forces are grossly incompetent and the administration plus the Pentagon are more interested in playing politics than in giving support to their fighting men. These are strong charges; they had better be pretty correct.

What checks can you make upon this kind of blanket indictment? First, does it square with the reports from other sources? The war in Viet Nam has been covered thoroughly by trained reporters in depth. I have listened to the accounts on the spot by at least a score of newsmen from such respected publications as Time, Newsweek, the Wall St. Journal, from Look and Life and the Saturday Evening Post, from NBC and CBS and from ABC.

These are trained reporters. They are not afraid to criticize. I have not read or heard one account by these trained observers that bear out the accusations of Capt. Shank.

Perhaps they are part of the great conspiracy to hoodwink the American public, but just last week two of these reporters were awarded the Pulitzer prize for their coverage of the war. I am always a little suspicious of million. In July 1962 the Secretary of Defense finally got around to bringing the situation to a halt. Over $63 million had been spent; nothing had been completed. Operation Big Dish was cancelled.

And who is to blame for this frivolous waste of American tax dollars? Apparently, nobody. The Department of Defense has not offered to single out any of its numerous divisions or agencies as the responsible party. Exactly how and why Operation Big Dish was allowed to get out of hand is one of those complicated Washington mysteries which will probably never be unraveled.

Though a satisfactory solution may escape us, we can come to certain probable conclusions. What is at fault here is not a single department. It is a system which has arisen in our Federal government; a system which centralizes more and more power each year within the Executive bureaucracy; a system which is taking decision-making away from the elected officeholders of the Congress and placing it in the hands of the appointed administrators of the Executive; a system which, though unable to manage itself efficiently, is marked by an adeptness at shielding itself from legislative regulation.

THE LAST DROP: Did I the man who finds everyone out of step but him. With a disgruntled young man with a college ROTC background appoints himself to pass judgment on the Secretary of Defense, on the Pentagon, and the professional military men in charge of a very difficult war, don't rush in to buy.

I talked with military men, officers who knew their business, who were furious at the charges of stupidity and incompetence. They insisted that the officers and NCO's were hand-picked and trained technicians. They knew personally some of the men running the war. They were in correspondence with their friends on duty, and they rejected the charges. It is strange that the professionals in the news game and in the armed forces overlooked the things they really are. Perhaps you would do well to overlook the letters.

There is one other question to be answered: why were the letters published? They do not reveal any understanding of the nature of our problem in Southeast Asia. They do not throw any new light on the direction we should take.

What they have done is to stir up an emotional tempest and furnished ammunition to every ill informed and unbalanced war hawk. I do not believe that it is patriotic or in the best interest of the nation to undermine confidence in our armed forces and their leaders. If such charges are made by a responsible publication, they should be bolstered by more evidence than the letters expressing the gripes of a young warrior. I do not believe that it serves any useful purpose to defame the president and the Pentagon.

We have had a campaign recently by fanatics to discredit the last two presidents, the Supreme Court, the Congress, the C.I.A. and government in general. If it be the nature of the current brand of patriotism to spread distrust, contempt, and hate for American leaders, then I'll settle for just good common sense.

Letters to the Editor

May 13, 1964

Dear Mr. Shepard:

Will you put this in a prominent spot in your paper? Thank you.

NO, the Antioch Garden Club has not forgotten to fill the planters that are placed prominently about the village. We, the members, are trying to decide what we can plant that will not be choked by refuse, rat upon, stamped down, cut down or pulled up by the roots. Have you any suggestions?

WE HAD HOPED to bring a little beauty from our gardens into the business area for motorists and shoppers to enjoy. However, we have found nothing durable enough to withstand the onslaught of destruction.

DO YOU THINK a few signs might help such as: "Don't Destroy—Enjoy!" "Litter degrades beauty!" BUT THEN—People who do such things never read signs.

Mrs. R. J. Scully
Litter-bug Chairman
Antioch Garden Club

To the Editor:
I submit this account to your paper not for the letterbox, but I think the nature of it could receive frontpage attention.

We are horrified when we read about men and women being beaten up or killed and people standing around doing nothing to aid or prevent it. As it happens in other cities we only say "how terrible" and then forget it.

Well, last Saturday evening about 11:30 a 17 year old girl walking home a few blocks from the Dance at the Roller Rink was viciously attacked by a 21 year old girl known for previous brutal behavior. The girl was beaten up and knocked out cold on the sidewalk with the help of another girl. While about twenty to twenty-five people stood by and did nothing—absolutely nothing—What is the matter with people like you? If you didn't have the nerve to stop the attack—the 17 year old made no attempt to fight back and even avoided the fight in the first place. You could have gotten help in Casey's Bar that was full of people. And you, the man who got out of your car and picked up your antenna, that was broken off when she was slammed up against the car and just got back in your car again. Aren't you proud of yourself?

Even when she lay unconscious and her girlfriends screamed for help—still no one responded.

I would suggest that if we continue having Saturday night dances in Antioch, that it be supervised better. This isn't the first time something like this has happened during or after these dances. If you can be attacked walking down Main street, and you can, something is sure wrong.

This happened right in your own town Saturday. What are the good people of Antioch—or you, Mr. Mayor—going to do about it—say it's too bad and forget about it. I hope not.

Automobile Air-Conditioning

If you've ever watched a small aircraft taking off from an airfield you must have noticed the burst of speed as it left the ground. This process—known as becoming "airborne"—has become a part of our language for describing how products suddenly "catch on."

Air conditioning for cars is in just this stage today. This year for the first time, more units will be installed in cars than in homes.

Conditioning units started selling in a small way ten years ago. In 1957, only 2.8 per cent of new cars were factory equipped. This jumped to 10 per cent last year and will reach over 14 per cent this year, an increase of 40 per cent! The entire U. S. auto industry installed 757,311 units in 1962 and this year will easily top a million. A similar number of "hang on" units, added to cars later, will also be sold during the year.

The $300 average cost of air conditioning a passenger car is money well spent in the opinion of owners now driving air conditioned cars. The obvious benefits of cool dry air in Summer tend to catch the public imagination, but drivers are just as enthusiastic about the even temperature, elimination of draughts and window fogging in Winter.

If you are planning on buying a new car, it will pay you to look into air conditioning. The future popularity of this accessory will likely return a good portion of the investment back to you in higher resale value.

New Conservancy District Is Duplication, Says Julia

Julia Chonis is Chairman of the "No-Con" District Council, a group of citizens opposed to establishment of the Conservancy District on which a vote will be held this Saturday, May 23.

She is an officer of the Fox Lake Hills Drainage District. For several years she has been active in organizations seeking to combat water pollution and solve sewerage problems.

She has a considerable background of knowledge in Lake County's pollution problems and what's being done to combat them. Here she gives a few of the facts pertinent to the Conservancy District.

By Julia Chonis

In the past two weeks I've received reams of informational material from state, federal and private agencies on water pollution programs. There is so much material that it would take pages of this newspaper to quote so I'm just repeating some of the data which I think is most pertinent, so here goes:

"All 50 of our States have operating programs of water pollution control. And on the Federal level, there is a new and strengthened Federal Water Pollution Control Act."

"The states have the basic responsibility for water pollution abatement." Below this is the county and city or village health agencies.

"The Federal Water Pollution Control Act of 1956, for the first time permitted the Federal Government to join with local governments in financing sewage treatment facilities. Legislation now permits the Federal government to contribute 30% (50% in depressed areas) of the costs of a project of $600,000 whichever is less. Cities or Counties which combine to build a joint project may obtain a Federal Grant up to $2,400,000. During the past 5 years of the Federal Program grants of 225 million dollars were made to help build 1.3 billion worth of plant construction and modernization."

"Construction grants are administered by Federal and STATE water pollution control agencies."

"The U. S. Army Corps of Engineers has a study of the entire Fox River watershed in progress since the 1961 floods. The Wilmot, Chain of Lakes and Ottawa studies have been completed. They still have the other areas to complete. Their inclination, so I have been told, is to recommend reservoirs in Wisconsin to hold back the water at flood stages and let it out in dry spells to flush out the Lakes. This study is now in progress. When completed money will be allocated to help us. We do not need a pocket size handkerchief conservancy district to hamper progress on this program.

"Federal enforcement procedures are initiated by the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare or upon request of the state which believes that the health and welfare of its residents are being endangered by pollution of interstate waters coming from another state."

"Federal action can be initiated in interstate cases whenever the governor requests it."

Our state is participating in two interstate water pollution control agencies now. The Illinois-Missouri agency through the Bi-State Development Agency; and The Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, Virginia and West Virginia agency through the Ohio River Valley Water Sanitation Commission.

Lake County is participating in a bi-county committee which includes Kenosha County in Wisconsin (Why not enlarge it to include McHenry County?) They are doing something NOW.

"Federal scientists are studying ways to renovate waste water (take wastes out of water), transforming it into pure clean water again. Five separate laboratories are being built and four more are planned to meet regional and special water quality problems."

"Federal projects in seven major riverbasins are working to preserve water quality there, not only for the present but for the years to come."

The State Sanitary Water Board issued a report as of April 10, showing actions taken against villages, industries. They listed at least 30. Some of the cases were resolved in heavy fines for the offenders. This action was taken NOW by the state. Who needs petty conservancy district politicians if you have a group of interested citizens?

The Rivers Conservancy District Act was written in 1929 when we did not have the State Water Resources and Flood Control Board (1945); Public Water District (1949); Water Service Districts (1951); Surface Water Protection Districts (1953); Drainage and Flood Control Act (1959); State Sanitary Water Board Act (1951); and many other agencies now in existence. The River Conservancy District Act was a catch all and is now obsolete.

There are some facts and fiction (promises by the proponents):

They promise chemical treatment of the Chain O' Lakes waters. Fact: Cost of treatment for one year alone would be the equivalent of five years of taxes.

They promise engineering, fact finding, studies and research. Fact: These same services are now being furnished by six agencies at the State and county level, plus the Federal Government, many universities and private industries. Millions are being spent on research. Why duplicate this work?

They promise Mechanical removal of algae. Fact: Qualified engineers admit this is not feasible because of the large area involved (8,700 acres), and the nature of the problem.

They promise a laboratory and technicians. Fact: Extensive research is already being performed at what is doubtless a higher level than the Conservancy District could afford. Why spend your tax money for a second lab?

They promise a full-time engineer, five sanitarians, one or more inspectors, patrol boats—and, of course, a "Con" district manager. Fact: Salaries of personnel, cost of modern equipment and miscellaneous administrative expenses would consume the initial tax bite. The joker here is that the "Con" dis-

The Dangerous Age For Drivers 20 - 25

Springfield, Ill., May 11—Illinois drivers in the 20 through 24 year age bracket have a disproportionately higher percentage of accidents than any other age group, Secretary of State William H. Chamberlain said today.

Mr. Chamberlain released statistics based on the 1963 summary of motor vehicle accidents published by the Department of Public Works and Buildings and on data in the files of the Drivers License Division of the Secretary of State's office.

The 20 through 24 year group represents 10.97 per cent of Illinois drivers, but is involved in 14.97 per cent of all accidents; or 4 per cent more than its driver representation, Secretary Chamberlain said. They represent 2.24 per cent of drivers, but have only 1.11 per cent of all accidents, 1.73 per cent of fatal accidents and 1.25 per cent of accidents resulting in injury.

The second highest group for all accidents includes drivers from 25 through 34 years of age, who represent 20.50 per cent of drivers and are involved in 23.22 per cent of accidents, a difference of tract would then use their power of additional taxation. This could go as high as $37.50 per $10,000 of assessed valuation—and even higher than this through general obligation bonds, revenue bonds and special assessments.

Proponents of the district are telling different versions to the residents of our two counties. They are building a wall of dissension and distrust which can never be eradicated. We could have worked in harmony if they had made even the smallest effort to do so—without a conservancy district.

2.72 per cent, Secretary Chamberlain said. This group, however, shows 39 per cent less involvement in fatal accidents. For accidents resulting in injury, it shows 2.26 per cent more involvement.

Beginning at age 35, drivers show less involvement in accidents of all types than their driver representation, with only one exception. Drivers over 75 years of age represent 1.31 per cent of drivers and are involved in 2.05 per cent of fatal accidents.

he had attended a meeting of Civil Defense Directors at the Lake County fairgrounds recently. Announcement was made at the meeting, he said, that the U. S. is divided into eight Civil Defense Districts, the states into subordinate districts, etc. In the matter of Civil Defense preparedness, Mr. Dupre said, "I found that of the eight Districts in the nation, the one which includes Illinois is the worst; of the States in that District, Illinois is the worst; of the Districts in Illinois, ours is the worst, and in that District, Antioch is the worst."

"So I hope," Mr. Dupre continued, "that no one will think I'm throwing my weight around when I comply with the state ruling to blow the whistle, or take other measures to try to take Antioch out of the 'worst' category."

EAST SIDE PARKING

Einar Petersen reported that the committee had met with the committee of Business Men regarding establishment of parking facilities behind stores on the east side of Main St. The Business Men were to meet Thursday night, May 21, he said, after which more progress might be made. Mayor Cunningham and other members of the board expressed doubt that cooperation of people owning the property could be procured, and that the parking lot would "solve the merchants' problems. Members of the board, in the discussion that followed, pointed out the growing trend toward evening shopping, and expressed the opinion that evening store hours would do more to improve Antioch's business than any other measure.

Permission was given to the Antioch Rescue Squad to block off the north end of Broadway for their June 13 dance, during the evening hours.

SOO LINE ABANDONS PASSENGER SERVICE

The board discussed the matter of filing an objection to the abandonment of passenger service to Antioch by the Soo Line railroad. It was decided that protest would probably be futile, and the decision of whether or not to file a formal protest was tabled, pending formal notification of a hearing on the subject.

VILLAGE INSURANCE

Discussion of whether or not to abandon a portion of insurance on village property and to be "self-insured" in areas where it appeared more economical ended without a full decision, other than to renew some of the present policies which were due.

Mrs. Martha Hunter, treasurer, read the financial report for the fiscal year ending April 3, 1964. It will be published in next week's Antioch News.

Mayor Cunningham appointed Martha Hunter Village Treasurer for the next year. Mrs. Hunter announced that she was now starting her 20th year in this position.

David Nissen reported that discussions with residents along Route 21, now getting water from the village but

Banquet A Success

By Del Jahneke

Wesley Hall of the Antioch Methodist Church was a festive scene on Thursday evening, May 14th, as more than 125 mothers, daughters, grandmothers and granddaughters enjoyed a delicious roast beef dinner, with all the trimmings, and a fine program. Mrs. Wallace Anderson, president of the Wesley Evening Circle, welcomed the guests.

Mrs. Robert Duha, Sr., president of the Women's Society of Christian Service, was the installing officer in a brief, but impressive and reverent ceremony. The Wesley Evening Circle officers installed were: President—Mrs. Wallace Anderson; vice president—Mrs. Robert Bemis; secretary—Mrs. Donald Cramer; treasurer—Mrs. Bernard Stadler; devotionist—Mrs. Arthur Meierdick, Jr.; hostess chairman—Mrs. Harold Knutesen; ways and means chairman—Mrs. Todd Mapletier; publicity chairman—Mrs. Edward Jahneke; and sunshine chairman—Mrs. J. Andrews.

Mrs. Anderson then presented some special awards—one was to the oldest Mother there—Mrs. Clara Buck, 83 years young; the grandmother with the most grandchildren resulted in a tie between Mrs. L. V. Sitter and Mrs. Louise Hetzel—nine grandchildren each; and Mrs. Carl Schiesser was the mother with the youngest daughter there—her three months old baby girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smouse sang several duets in harmony. Mrs. Charles Watson then showed colored slides of the Watsons' two week tour of the Caribbean.

They visited St. Thomas Island, Jamaica, Antigua, Barbados, Caracas, Venezuela, the Panama Canal Zone, and other islands. Mrs. Watson gave many informative and fascinating facts in her commentary on each slide.

There was group singing, led by Mrs. Kenneth Smouse, accompanied by Mrs. Donald Cobb on the piano. The program was concluded with everyone singing the hymn, "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds."

URBANA — Whether the new "Mrs." gets top benefit from a good quality kitchen knife depends to a large extent on the care she gives it.

Here are some suggestions worth passing along to new knife owners from Sue Herndon, University of Illinois home economist.

To prevent nicking and dulling of edges, store knives so that the blades won't touch one another. Some recommended storage aids are slotted wooden wall racks, magnetized holders or slotted drawer holders. Some manufacturers provide cardboard shields that may be used to keep blades from hitting other utensils in drawers.

To avoid dulling the edge on the knife, cut on a board rather than on a metal or plastic work surface.

Do not cut paper, metal or string with knives that are used for regular kitchen tasks.

Do not expose knife blades to heat.

Never leave a knife lying in water. Water may reduce the temper of the steel that enables the knife to take and keep a sharp edge. It may also injure the knife handle, particularly if it is made of some woods and plastics. To avoid staining the blade, rinse knives promptly after use and then dry immediately.

Sharpen good knives, especially hollow-ground ones, on an oil stone or an electric knife sharpener. An electric sharpener is an easy, safe way to keep the blades sharp. An electric sharpener also reduces the chance of ruining the blade. Using an oil stone successfully requires experience. Scalloped-edge knives can be reset and sharpened by using a sharpener on the flat side of the blade.

"My wife has the worst habit of staying up until one and two o'clock in the morning, and I can't break her of it."

"What is she doing all that time?"

"Waiting for me to come home."

PEACETIME VETS

"In service circles it is commonly noted that the general public 'loves us in wartime and forgets us when peace comes'.

"In the postwar era, evidence of that attitude can be found in the refusal of Congress to approve various benefits—such as educational aid—for the peacetime military man who has finished his service.

"There have been several attempts to provide such benefits by law, but none has been successful to date.

"We wonder if it is shortsighted to neglect the peacetime veteran. His sacrifice of time and income cannot be reckoned as equal to the dangers that wartime servicemen regularly face. Yet the need for peacetime service is reckoned as quite serious in times of 'cold war', and in fact many young men serving in Southeast Asia or Berlin realize an immediacy of danger that belies a state of technical peace.

"Of course, public clamor for better benefits for peacetime veterans could accomplish a change. But, as servicemen themselves realize, there is a great tendency to overlook the men on guard when the battlefield is silent."—The Mundelein Independent-Register.

Local Realtors Plan Week Of Activities

"Move Up to More in '64—A Better Home thru a Realtor" has been selected as the slogan for the 1964 Realtor Week, which opens May 24, Charles J. Cermak, president of the Waukegan-Lake County Board of Realtors, announced.

Realtor Week activities have been planned for May 24 through May 30. Mr. Cermak said, as Realtors from this area join with the more than 75,000 others throughout the nation in efforts to emphasize the distinction between Realtors and just anyone in the real estate business and to acquaint the public with the services offered.

"A Realtor," Mr. Cermak explained, "is a member of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, one of the largest professional and trade associations in the nation. To qualify for membership in NAREB, a real estate broker must demonstrate his professional ability, must be approved by the other members of the local board, and, finally, subscribe to the rigid Code of Ethics of the National Association. The primary goal of the Realtor under this code is to keep the interests of both the buyer and the seller uppermost in mind during a transaction."

Only members of the Waukegan-Lake County board and NAREB may use the term Realtor, which is a service mark (similar to a trademark) registered in the U. S. Patent Office, he added.

The National Association of Real Estate Boards was founded in 1908 in Minneapolis and now maintains offices in Chicago and Washington, D. C. Realtors are kept up-to-date on changes in real estate law, mortgage rates, buying trends, and other business factors through publications of the Association's professional staff, which maintains close contact with developments throughout the country.

Sequoit Track Squad Settles For Second

Antioch's high flying track squad came up short Monday evening and finished second to Zion-Benton in a triangular meet held at Antioch. Grant made up the rest of the trio and the point totals were Zion 61½, Antioch 53½, and Grant 33.

The Sequoits dominated the field events with three first place finishes, three thirds and two fourths. Vince Casella tossed the shot 48' 11" to win his event while Lon Ipsen finished third and then took first in the discus with a toss of 130' 5½".

Bob Schenk and Jim Edwards took first and third respectively in the high jump with leaps of 6' and 5'8". Edwards also took a fourth in the broad jump with 20' 5". In the running events Tom Morgan accounted for the only first place finish for the Sequoits. Morgan edged Carr of Zion-Benton in the 220 with a time of 23.4 while Carr finished less than a step behind at 23.4 plus.

Morgan finished second to Carr in the 100 yard dash with a time of 10.7. Carr ran it in 10.4. Bruce Dalgard took second in both hurdle events. Dalgard ran the 120 high hurdles in 16.4 a half a step in front of Johnson of Zion-Benton. In the 180 low hurdles, Dalgard crossed the line in 22 seconds flat. The winning time was 21.8.

The Sequoit relay team placed second in both the mile and 880 relay events. Their times were 1:36.9 and 3:41.

Other point winners for the Sequoits were Tom Tantlinger in the 440, Jim Wojnowiak in the mile and Jim Edwards in the 220. All placed third. Tantlinger's time of 53 flat in the 440 and

Edwards' 20.5' leap in the broad jump were both school records.

The Sequoits will have a busy time of it for the next week. They played host to Wauconda in a dual meet yesterday and Saturday they will compete in the conference meet at Lake Forest to close out the season. Preliminaries at Lake Forest start at 10 a.m. with the finals scheduled for 1 p.m.

2,700 Fans Crowd Wilmot Race Track

Rodger Otto of Burlington scored his first feature race win in Modified stock car racing at the Kenosha County Speedway's opening night of racing before a crowd of 2,700 excited fans.

Otto took the lead on the 18th lap of the 25-lap race from Duane Harris of McHenry who had the lead from the start.

Favorite Ed Stillman of Milwaukee, 1962 and 1963 champion, dropped out of the race with a loose drive shaft. Stillman had set fast time in time trials but also ran into trouble in his heat.

Heats were won by Jim Bozman, Waukegan; Ron Larson, Racine; Kenny Helden, Barrington, and Jim Sullivan of Antioch.

Otto had started in the feature in 15th spot but had trouble getting by many of the cars as only three cars in the field were lapped. All cars were running strong and fast and positions were close in all races.

The 15-lap semi-feature was won by Jim Bozman of Waukegan as he passed George Uttech at the checkered flag for the win. Prior to the last lap, three Wisconsin drivers were bunched behind Uttech, but Sorenson of Racine spun Ron Larson, also of Racine, and when Tony Latuso of Williams Bay slowed to avoid the stalled cars, Bozman sped by.

Earlier in the semi-feature three drivers flipped and became members of the "Flip Club." Carl Lund of Milwaukee flipped on the first lap and both Russ Reynolds of Racine and Bob Victor of North Chicago flipped on the seventh lap. All three did a complete flip, landing back on their wheels. None was injured, but the cars were damaged extensively.

In the Spectator Division of cars, Jim Crossman of Waukegan scored two wins as he caught the checkered flag in both the feature and one heat. Eddie Jones of Waukegan won the other heat. Dick Aissen of McHenry, defending champion, set fast time but was blanked in the events.

Tigers Beat Giants In Little League Opener

LITTLE LEAGUE OPENS
Sunday, afternoon, the Antioch Little League opened its 1964 season before a large crowd.

The 1963 champions, Antioch Lumber Giants, were defeated by State Bank's Tigers, although they outthrew the Tigers 8 to 2. All of the Tigers' runs came as a result of walks, except 3 in the first inning which came across on a home run by Billy Albano, the winning pitcher.

The teams were playing on the newly sodded infield for the first time, but adjusted to it easily with no errors, other than two wild throws and one dropped fly.

League officials were particularly pleased to note the added enjoyment spectators derived from the game as a result of the electric scoreboard and public address system which were installed recently.

PEACETIME VETS

"In service circles it is commonly noted that the general public loves us in wartime and forgets us when peace comes."

"In the postwar era, evidence of that attitude can be found in the refusal of Congress to approve various benefits—such as educational aid—for the peacetime military man who has finished this service."

"There have been several attempts to provide such benefits by law, but none has been successful to date."

"We wonder if it is shortsighted to neglect the peacetime veteran. His sacrifice of time and income cannot be reckoned as equal to the dangers that wartime servicemen regularly face. Yet the need for peacetime service is reckoned as quite serious in times of 'cold war', and in fact many young men serving in Southeast Asia or Berlin realize an immediacy of danger that belies a state of technical peace."

"Of course, public clamor for better benefits for peacetime veterans could accomplish a change. But, as servicemen themselves realize, there is a great tendency to overlook the men on guard when the battlefield is silent."—The Mundelein Independent-Register.

New Neighbors

We take pleasure in welcoming Frank and Dorothy Skrayneck to the community. They moved into their new home at 2407 E. Thornwood Drive, May 2, from Foster, Central and Milwaukee in Chicago. They have five children, Kathleen 9 1/2, Cynthia 8 1/2, Virginia who was just 7 on May 6, (they celebrated the occasion Sunday with a family party and having Maureen Maloney over for cake and ice cream), Christopher 3 1/2 and Lisa 2 1/2.

Frank is a roofer by trade and works for the John Brunsfeld Roofers in Chicago. In his spare time he runs Frank's Home Maintenance. His hobby is bowling. Dottie attended the Altar and Rosary Society's meeting last Wednesday, and came away being a member. She plans on attending the Women's Club meetings, too. Her hobby is sewing for her home and her children.

John and Pat Brown bought the home at 215 S. Countryside Lane last year. They are formerly from Oakwood Knolls, in Antioch. Pat's hobby is doing needlework of all kinds. John enjoys putting around in the garden.

May 3 was their daughter, Pamela's fifth birthday.

Local Realtors Plan Week Of Activities

"Move Up to More in '64—A Better Home thru a Realtor" has been selected as the slogan for the 1964 Realtor Week, which opens May 24, Charles J. Cermak, president of the Waukegan-Lake County Board of Realtors, announced.

Realtor Week activities have been planned for May 24 through May 30. Mr. Cermak said, as Realtors from this area join with the more than 75,000 others throughout the nation in efforts to emphasize the distinction between Realtors and just anyone in the real estate business and to acquaint the public with the services offered "A Realtor," Mr. Cermak explained, "is a member of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, one of the largest professional and trade associations in the nation. To qualify for membership in NAREB, a real estate broker must demonstrate his professional ability, must be approved by the other members of the local board, and, finally, subscribe to the rigid Code of Ethics of the National Association. The primary goal of the Realtor under this code is to keep the interests of both the buyer and the seller uppermost in mind during a transaction."

Only members of the Waukegan-Lake County board and NAREB may use the term Realtor, which is a service mark (similar to a trademark) registered in the U. S. Patent Office, he added.

The National Association of Real Estate Boards was founded in 1908 in Minneapolis and now maintains offices in Chicago and Washington, D. C. Realtors are kept up-to-date on changes in real estate law, mortgage rates, buying trends, and other business factors through publications of the Association's professional staff, which maintains close contact with developments throughout the country.

Birthday Surprises

Fellow, be leery of the lady who asks you in to replace a blown fuse. Last Thursday afternoon, Joyce Maloney asked John Nicolsa if he would replace a fuse for her, and when he walked into her home, Milo and Lorraine Ponterio, Norma Gibbs and Dee Flint all shouted, "Surprise! Happy Birthday!" Between 60 and 70 candles were lit on a long coffee cake. John said he thought the cake would burn to a crisp from the heat.

Celebrate Anniversary

When the folks at the VFW found out that Ed and Dorothy Langbein were celebrating their 23rd wedding anniversary Sunday, they decided to make it a memorable occasion for them Saturday night. The group had a ball.

The last meeting for this season will be held Thursday, May 28.

Moving Away Party

Since the Bob Karrys are moving to Waukegan the first of June, Peggy's neighbors thought it would be nice to have a little surprise party for her. Friday night, Joyce Maloney, Dee Flint, Ruth Tuttle, Beverly Tomask, Esther LaChance and Nancy Klessner got together at Norma Gibbs' home and reminisced about the changes in their families since they moved here. Peggy was presented with a gift and a corsage.

Lightning Strikes TV

If you wondered where that loud crash of lightning struck at 5:30 Saturday morning, it was at the Dick Mauck home at 2304 Sunset Lane. It hit the antenna, went down the wires and blew out their colored TV set and all the fuses in the house. It left a black, burned spot on the wall in back of the set, about 3 inches in diameter. They didn't even know their home was hit until after they called Public Service to report they had no lights. The Bob Hammitt home in Venetian Village was hit at the same time, striking the roof and putting a hole in it.

Hospital Patient

Mrs. Millie Caldwell was operated on last Friday at Victory Memorial Hospital.

Sequoit Track Squad Settles For Second

Antioch's high flying track squad came up short Monday evening and finished second to Zion-Benton in a triangular meet held at Antioch. Grant made up the rest of the trio and the point totals were Zion 61 1/2, Antioch 53 1/2, and Grant 33.

The Sequoits dominated the field events with three first place finishes, three thirds and two fourths. Vince Casella tossed the shot 48' 11" to win this event while Lon Ipsen finished third and then took first in the discus with a toss of 130' 5 1/2".

Bob Schenk and Jim Edwards took first and third respectively in the high jump with leaps of 6' and 5' 8". Edwards also took a fourth in the broad jump with 20' 5". In the running events Tom Morgan accounted for the only first place finish for the Sequoits. Morgan edged Carr of Zion-Benton in the 220 with a time of 23.4 while Carr finished less than a step behind at 23.4 plus.

Morgan finished second to Carr in the 100 yard dash with a time of 10.7. Carr ran it in 10.4. Bruce Dalgard took second in both hurdle events. Dalgard ran the 120 high hurdles in 16.4 a half a step in front of Johnson of Zion-Benton. In the 180 low hurdles, Dalgard crossed the line in 22 seconds flat. The winning time was 21.8.

The Sequoit relay team placed second in both the mile and 880 relay events. Their times were 1:36.9 and 3:41.

Other point winners for the Sequoits were Tom Tantlinger in the 440, Jim Wojnowiak in the mile and Jim Edwards in the 220. All placed third. Tantlinger's time of 53 flat in the 440 and Edwards' 20.5" leap in the broad jump were both school records.

The Sequoits will have a busy time of it for the next week. They played host to Wauconda in a dual meet yesterday and Saturday they will compete in the conference meet at Lake Forest to close out the season. Preliminaries at Lake Forest start at 10 a.m. with the finals scheduled for 1 p.m.

2,700 Fans Crowd Wilmot Race Track

Rodger Otto of Burlington scored his first feature race win in Modified stock car racing at the Kenosha County Speedway's opening night of racing before a crowd of 2,700 excited fans.

Otto took the lead on the 18th lap of the 25-lap race from Duane Harris of McHenry who had the lead from the start.

Favorite Ed Stillman of Milwaukee, 1962 and 1963 champion, dropped out of the race with a loose drive shaft. Stillman had set fast time in time trials but also ran into trouble in his heat.

Heats were won by Jim Bozman, Waukegan; Ron Larson, Racine; Kenny Heldon, Barrington; and Jim Sullivan of Antioch.

Otto had started in the feature in 15th spot but had trouble getting by many of the cars as only three cars in the field were lapped. All cars were running strong and fast and positions were close in all races.

The 15-lap semi-feature was won by Jim Bozman of Waukegan as he passed George Uttech at the checkered flag for the win. Prior to the last lap, three Wisconsin drivers were bunched behind Uttech, but Sorenson of Racine spun Ron Larson, also of Racine, and when Tony Latuso of Williams Bay slowed to avoid the stalled cars, Bozman sped by.

Earlier in the semi-feature three drivers flipped and became members of the "Flip Club." Carl Lund of Milwaukee flipped on the first lap and both Russ Reynolds of Racine and Bob Victor of North Chicago flipped on the seventh lap. All three did a complete flip, landing back on their wheels. None was injured, but the cars were damaged extensively.

In the Spectator Division of cars, Jim Crossman of Waukegan scored two wins as he caught the checkered flag in both the feature and one heat. Eddie Jones of Waukegan won the other heat. Dick Aissen of McHenry, defending champion, set fast time but was blanked in the events.

Tigers Beat Giants In Little League Opener

LITTLE LEAGUE OPENS
Sunday afternoon, the Antioch Little League opened its 1964 season before a large crowd.

The 1963 champions, Antioch Lumber Giants, were defeated by State Bank's Tigers, although they outthrew the Tigers 8 to 2. All of the Tigers' runs came as a result of walks, except 3 in the first inning which came across on a home run by Billy Albano, the winning pitcher.

The teams were playing on the newly sodded infield for the first time, but adjusted to it easily with no errors, other than two wild throws and one dropped fly.

League officials were particularly pleased to note the added enjoyment spectators derived from the game as a result of the electric scoreboard and public address system which were installed recently.

Salem Downs Union Grove

By John Hansen
After breaking their 9 game losing streak, the Falcons apparently caught on to the habit and downed Union Grove 7-3 for their second win in a row and second win this year.

The Falcons banged out 12 hits while Greg Klemko held the Broncos to only 5. Jack Schafer and Klemko led the barrage. Schafer was 4 for 4 and Klemko 3 for 4.

Grove grabbed a quick 2-0 lead but the Falcons evened it up in the third. The Broncos went ahead 3-2 and held that lead until the Falcons erupted for 5 runs in the last two innings.

Inside Antioch High

By Marilyn Gras

This is the last week of school for The Class of 1964. Final exams for seniors are being given today and tomorrow. This year seventeen seniors, slightly better than 10% of the class, are graduating with honors. To achieve this distinction they had to maintain a 4.00 (B) average through seven semesters of high school work. All awards were given out at special school assemblies on either Wednesday, May 13 or Wednesday, May 20.

Approximately 320 people attended the Fine Arts Awards Dinner held in the high school cafeteria last Sunday evening. At that time awards were presented to students involved in drama, choir and band. Members of the casts of J.B. and PYGMALION presented Mr. Dittman and the high school with paintings of the sets of those plays. John D. Horton was named winner of the Arion Award for the outstanding choir member, and Betty Liddle and Roy Miller were co-winners of the John Phillip Sousa award for the outstanding band member. A short concert by the Senior Choir and Concert Band followed the dinner.

At a student Council meeting early this week newly elected members attended, along with the retiring members. New members officially assume their offices on the first of June.

Reimer Grabs Feature Race From Sullivan

Running "flat out" in front of the pack, Johnny Reimer grabbed the 25-lap feature race at Waukegan Speedway Sunday night with several car lengths to spare in front of the second place

Jim Sullivan, of Antioch.

Sunday night marked the third season point race in the 1964 series and meant many points toward the championship for the winner. Nearly 40 Modified cars showed up to compete in the exciting time trials to see who would earn the coveted pole position for the Trophy Dash and the fastest time of the evening went to Reimer, who turned the quarter mile in 16.36.

All 60 cars in the Sportsman division were on hand

Lake Villa Little League

By Mrs. Bernice Bernau
The Giants and the Angels, the two new additions to the Lake Villa League played the opening game of the 1964 season, May 11. Alan Stelter, of the Giants, pitched a no hit, no run game, defeating the Angels 10 to 0 and helped his own cause by hitting the first home run of the season.

Another outstanding pitching performance was registered by Steve Schmeisser, of the Cubs, as the Cubs beat the Angels 15 to 1. Ralph Zanek led the Cubs in hitting with two home runs and a triple out of three times at bat.

In other Little League games this week, scores were as follows:

Cubs 5; Pirates 3.
Yanks 5; Braves 4.
Dodgers-Sox rained out.
The schedule of games for the week of May 21 through May 29:

and three thrilling events preceded the Sportsman feature race won by Jim Ford of Zion. This division sees the most excitement as a new driver begins to work his way toward the front of the big field of cars. More than 20 cars started in each heat.

Veterans Convention To Be In Chicago

The Veterans of World War I will hold their convention in Chicago this year. The convention will be held from September 12 to 17.

The entire convention, for both the men and the auxillary, will be held at the Palmer House.

Department of Illinois Commander Edward Hoag announces that the Dept. of Illinois convention will be held in Springfield, Ill., from July 1-12, with headquarters at the Leland Hotel.

How to be a hit with the misses

The answer, obviously enough, is to become a 1964 Dart owner. For this young-at-heart beauty is winsome—and then some.
Take 1964 Dart styling, for instance. Handsome, dashing, suave, and far from stuffed shirt. Here's a car anyone could love for looks alone. Inside, leather-grained vinyls are every bit as soft and supple as they appear. And how many other compacts can you name that offer a choice of standard or bucket seats, carpeting, and engines ranging from an Economy Run winning Six, to a sizzling, new 273 cu. in. V8.

So, if you want to be a hit with the misses, see your Dodge Dealer. But hurry, there are bound to be many other fellows with the same idea.

Swear In Junior Deputies May 23

A ceremony for the Junior Deputy Sheriffs will be held on May 23, 1964, at 11:00 a.m. in the County Court House in Waukegan. Sheriff Charles E. Larson will administer the Junior Deputy's Pledge to all those who have applied for membership in this program. The Sheriff will also issue a small brass star and an official identification card to all sworn in members in recognition of their acceptance. All interested youths have been notified of the event by mail and they have been encouraged to bring their parents and friends on this occasion. Fifty-one boys whose ages range between 13 thru 17 and two 18-year-old girls applied for membership in this project as of last week. Any youngster between ages of 13 through 17 may become a Junior Deputy providing he lives within the boundaries of Lake County, Illinois. Membership is free; however, each must live up to the Junior Deputy's Pledge to be eligible to participate in all activities scheduled under the auspices of the Sheriff. The project will be implemented by recreational activities during the summer months only. Participation in activities is on a voluntary basis, but all members will be encouraged to take an active part in the activities scheduled for them. Arrangements are being made for a trip to Chicago by bus from Waukegan to tour the Cook County Jail. The jail is the sixth largest penal institution in the country and the tour will be educational to all members of this project. The jail has a daily population of 1,800 prisoners. It is one of two places in Illinois where the electric chair is used for the execution of prisoners who are sentenced to death for a crime. Second and the main event will be a weekend encampment at the Navy Base at Great Lakes on July 17, 18 and 19, and again on August 14, 15 and 16. The third organized activity for Junior Deputies will include an opportunity to patrol the Sheriff's Water Patrol Boats on the Chain O' Lakes. Additional boats will be added to the present flotilla so that each youth may have the opportunity to observe the traffic and need for safety on the water. Sheriff Larson stated that the main objective of this program is to recognize our youths and bring them closer to the understanding of our laws and how the police officer enforces them. "We want to have them on our side for they are our future resources," he said. "This project has great potential for growth through each individual's participation and contribution. We will provide the leadership and watch any progress closely with the hope that we might be able to extend these educational and recreational activities beyond summer months in the future." Larson's Administrative Assistant, Stanley Schabowicz, who is in charge of this program, is pleased with the interest generated by youths and their parents. Many civic minded persons have already offered assistance to implement the activities scheduled for this summer. The Waukegan-North Chicago Transit Company has promised to provide buses for transportation and Johnson Motors will provide additional boats for our scheduled activities.

Channel Lake News

By Louise Gutowski
395-1317

The Card Party to be held Saturday, May 23, at the Channel Lake School has been postponed by the Community Club until further notice.

The Showcase of Talent, sponsored by the Channel Lake School PTA, had a very successful run on Broadway last Friday and Saturday evenings. The Broadway being Lake Ave. and the theater being our own school gym. The Showcase included a one act play entitled "Are We Dressing?"

The Friday night cast under the direction of Mrs. Louise Gutowski, starred Ted Sohy in the role of the father, Gloria Grammer as the mother, Wendy Eberman as their daughter, Polly, Martin McConahay as their son, Fred, with Joyce Waters and John Bjork as Joan and Greg, two friends of the family. Ray Skelton played the irate businessman and Ann Stanek, the family maid. Saturday's production was directed by Mrs. Dorothy Enzenbacher and starred Ted Sohy, Brenda Camerer, Darlene Van Dorn, Dwight Van Dorn, Donna Wrentman, Craig Patterson, Mickey Sohy and Loretta Turner. Chuck Stanek was the stage prompter.

The Talent Showcase also featured vocal solos by Sharon Biggerstaff, Betty Waters, Brad Turner and Shirley Turner. Accordion solos were played by Mickey Sohy and Loretta Turner. A clarinet solo featured Garry Rush.

Two skits were presented by the 5th and 6th grades under the direction of Mr. Andrews. The highlight of the evening was a special appearance of those very famous bugs, The Beatles.
